

To whom it may concern,
Please allow xm radio to broadcast weather & travel information. I travel across America and the local stations do not offer this information when you need it. Timing of this information is critical when travelling through a city or bad weather. Removing this service could cause a waste of resources or lives.

Sincerely,

david thomas